

Bones-zee: RAP

I'M Dr Bones-zee... WITH A PH.D, and you're looking for trouble if you mess with me. (Pushing his glasses up and doing a spin)

I'm bad, and I'm mean, and I'm here to clean your clock and adjust your dial 'cause your sticking it in, where it's no place bein'. It's just my style to strut and preen, and do what I mean and mean what I do. I kill all the soil, and boil all the seas, and I'm bringing it on till the world hits its knees... ' cause lily-livered un-thinkin' teens like you are my cheese...just like a rat you'll go rat- a- tat - tat...(Machine guns them for emphasis with his spear-gun..continues Rap rant)

"Me and my team are workin' the scene and we mean what we say and say what we mean...You're on a countdown to extinction cause you got an addiction ...You don't need the place, 'cause you lack the grace, to do what it takes to keep it all clean...so we'll take it all back and watch you all burn 'cause you humans never cared how to heed or to learn. You treat it as worthless, which all rhymes with Earthless. Cause if it's all worthless, we'll make you all Earthless!...Earthless! Earthless!

(The intrepid trio are speechless. Bones-zee approaches them and says to Jason)
